

ORGANIZATIONAL FIT

The following statements are generated from your Work Styles scores. Carefully read each statement and check the ones that are most significant to you. Remember, a statement appears because it may be significant for you, not because it is significant. Only you can decide which statements are most relevant to you.

- You are more effective when you are able to work outside the classic management hierarchy; you have a management style more typical of the smaller or decentralized organization
- You are more inclined to depend on field experience than on formal training in management methods
- You tend to be motivated primarily by the inherent interest you have in work or in its results, rather than by work for its own sake
- You can be something of a free-wheeler; you tend to base your actions on what benefits the organization or your immediate group rather than on corporately mandated or abstract values
- You are something of a free spirit; you may be less predictable than other people in terms of your response to the corporate "line" and more inclined to follow your own way of thinking
